

Ida

Metsberg

Ida Metsberg is a singer-songwriter who started with classical piano at the age of 7. She performs regularly in New York City as well as all over the United States, and was named Finlandia Foundation National's Performer of the Year in 2023. Ida teaches piano, voice and songwriting, and has years of experience working with children, with music lessons as well as performing singalongs at places like Scandinavia House and the Children's Museum of Manhattan. She nurtures a creative, accepting environment and building confidence in her students.

EDUCATION

The American Musical and Dramatic Academy, New York

SIMONA SCHOOL of MUSIC